Baby Beaver Series

The Limb Beaver Baby Beaver Series delivers compact, high-performance brush and limb-cutting capability for operators who need agility without sacrificing strength. Built for skid steers and tractor loaders, these 48-inch cutting attachments are engineered to take on demanding vegetation-management tasks with precision and control.

BB 4

Designed to slice through limbs up to 3 inches in diameter and reach working heights of up to 200 inches, the Baby Beaver Series packs big capability into a maneuverable, easy-to-handle platform. Whether you're clearing overhang, trimming trails, maintaining fencerows, or managing tight-access areas, Baby Beaver attachments provide fast, consistent, and safe cutting performance.

Perfect for municipalities, road crews, farmers, grounds managers, hunting clubs, and property owners, the Baby Beaver Series offers reliable power and versatility in a compact footprint—making it the ideal solution for every-day vegetation maintenance where efficiency and reach matter.
